

Philippe Halsman: Astonish Me!

This massive retrospective volume profiles the work of Philippe Halsman, one of the worlds most revered photographers. Salvador Dalis flamboyant moustache, Richard Nixon jumping in the West Wing, Grace Kellys amazing profile--these are just a few of the images that achieved iconic status and helped make photographer Philippe Halsman an icon in his own right. Comprising hundreds of photographs and insightful accompanying texts, this volume explores Halsmans oeuvre in a variety of aspects. It examines his early career exhibiting works at the avant-garde La Pleiade Gallery in Paris; his experiments with portraiture, particularly the series of stunning images of Marilyn Monroe and his more than 100 covers for Life magazine; his pictures of the contemporary art scene that include famous dancers, movie stars, stage actors, and musicians and the birth of his jumpology concept; and his unique, 30-year collaboration with Salvador Dali, including a book devoted entirely to the artists moustache. Anyone interested in portraiture, celebrity, or performance will marvel at the breadth and magnificence of Halsmans work, which is definitively presented in this beautiful volume.
