

Art Engaging Gangs

A group exhibition of artists who have engaged with gangs in different ways. This art is the flip side of Norman Rockwells middle American paintings of Thanksgiving gatherings or getting immunized, a shot, from the doctor to protect you from unseen danger. This is a different kind of danger: the danger of poverty, lack of work and opportunity. The work reflects and documents the violence and death that surrounds the lives of the gang members and the victims. AC Institute June 6 - July 27, 2013 Curated by Holly Crawford Participating Artists: Erik Bergrin, Mark Dillon, Jasmine Johnson, Nadin Ospina, Joseph Rodriguez, Paula Roush, Maayke Schurer, Robert Taub, Zefrey Throwell
